

Elector

Josh Chetwynd (Secretary)

Josh has written extensively on the history of baseball in Great Britain. He co-authored the book British Baseball and the West Ham Club: History of a 1930s Professional Team in East London (McFarland & Co. 2007) and wrote Baseball in Europe: A Country by Country History (McFarland & Co. 2008), which has a chapter dedicated to Great Britain baseball history. Additional writing on the subject includes a chapter on GB in the book Baseball Without Borders: The International Pastime (University of Nebraska Press 2006) as well as compiling the history of the Great Britain national team. On the field, Josh represented Great Britain in international competition from 1996 to 2006 and played in Britain's top domestic league between 2002 and 2009, winning two national championships as player/manager for the London Mets (2007–2008) and one as a player with the Bracknell Blazers (2009). He was also a baseball analyst in Great Britain on Five (TV) between 2002 and 2008, and in 2010 he became the baseball expert on a new baseball programme on BBC Radio 5 live sports extra.