

Elector

Joe Gray (Chair)

Joe is the Great Britain national team archivist and statistical record-keeper for British baseball's top level. In addition, he is the founder of Project Cobb – <http://www.projectcobb.org.uk/cobb.html> – which stands for the Project for the Chronicling of British Baseball. Joe has written articles on the history of baseball in Britain, including a 10,000-word essay on classic post-World War II finals. He also serves as Scorers Commissioner for the Great Britain Baseball Scorers Association.